Making It REAL! Recruitment, Education, And Learning: Creating a New Generation of Librarians to Serve All New Yorkers

The Franklin-Essex-Hamilton School Library System will fund up to $16,000 per person for two candidates to obtain an ALA-accredited Master of Library Science (MLS) or Master of Science in Information Science (MSIS) degree with certification as a School Library Media Specialist. The current cost per credit hour at SUNY Albany is $288; at Syracuse University it is $806. Most programs require a minimum of 36 hours.

This scholarship opportunity is the result of a New York State Library statewide recruitment grant project funded by the federal Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS).
